BARBOURVILLE HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

This week the Seventh and Eighth Grades again won the Attendance - Punctuality banner. The general averages are the best yet; 96% being the average for the whole school. The following are the averages of each room:

Prof. Faulkner	— 97.20%
Miss Pelly	— 96.43%
Prof. Mills	— 96.40%
Miss Parker	— 95.88%
Miss Barton	— 95.71%
Miss Prater	— 92.51%
Prof. Oldfield	— 95.40%

From the above averages can be seen how nearly alike all the rooms are averaging in their endeavor to win the banner. Let's see who comes out ahead next Monday.

Last Saturday at Artemus, two exciting basket-ball games were played. The High School Girls' Second Team played Artemus School Girls' Team and the score was left 6 to 6, so another game will have to be played ere the game can be claimed by either.

The High School Boys' Second Team won from Artemus by a score of 33 to 3. As we do not have the names of the Artemus players, the line-up cannot be published.

The Chapel Exercises, last Monday, were quite interesting.

It consisted of Devotional Exercises and then all the remaining time was given over to Song Service, led by Prof. Oldfield with his conet, and Miss Faulkner at the piano. At present the school does not possess books, only a few borrowed ones. This lack of song books is one of our drawbacks. However the students all love to sing and each one of them enjoyed the special Song Service, Monday.

New students are still enrolling. If they keep coming in there will soon be 400 enrolled.

Ladies Aid to Hold Christmas Sale.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will hold their Christmas Sale on Friday, December 15, 1916, during the entire day.

The place will be announced later.

The Tuesday Club.

The Tuesday Club met at the home of Mrs. A. W. Hopper Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. W. C. Black was the leader of the day, assisted by Mrs. Geo. Tye and Mrs. Sawyer A. Smith. The following interesting program was given:

Pittsburg, Early Gateway to The West—Mrs. A. W. Hopper. Overthrow of New France—Miss Gertrude Black. Causes of Revolution—Mrs. W. S. Hudson.

Experiences of Colonial Life—Mrs. Archibald.

Early Pathfinders—Mrs. W. H. Faulkner.

John Hall, Bay View Man—Mrs. McClung.

Crater Lake—Mrs. W. C. Black.

The spelling test was most interesting as well as instructive.

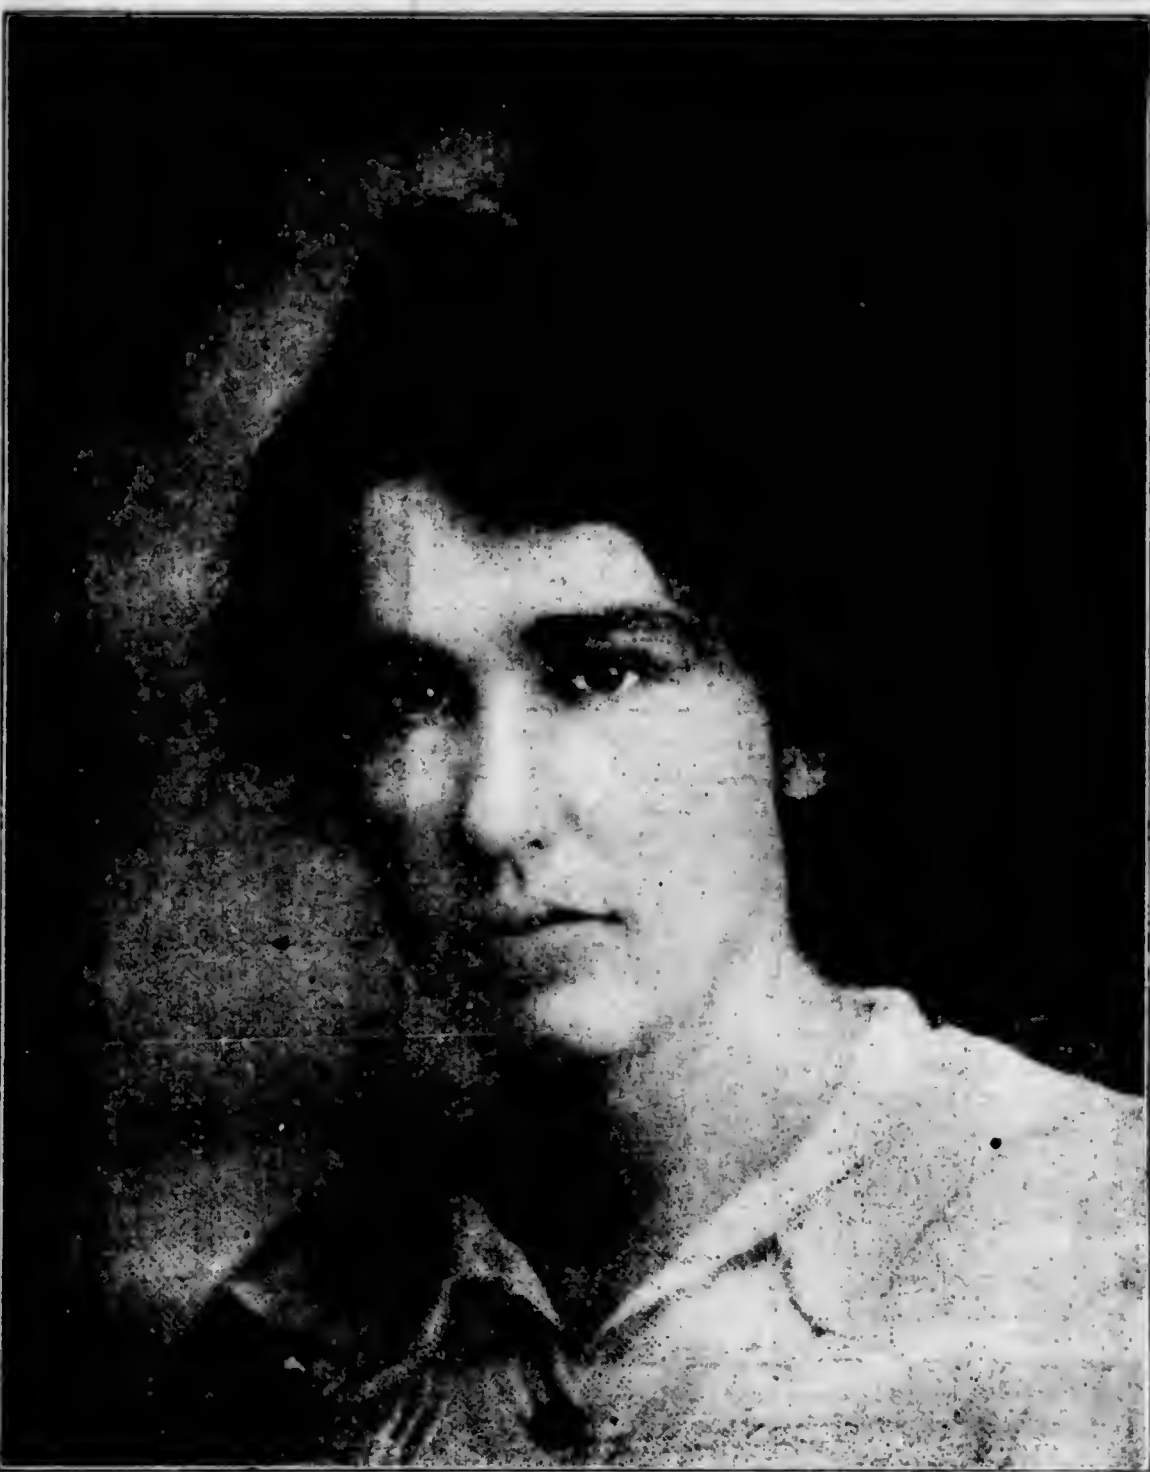

Most delightful refreshments were served. The Club will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Sawyer A. Smith.

A False Report Corrected

I am just in possession of a letter from a friend, stating that in certain communities there is a report to the effect that the Barbourville Baptist Institute will not take students unless they board in the dormitories. Allow me to say that this is absolutely false—just like some former reports have been circulated for the purpose of keeping students out of the Institute. Our dormitories are open to those who wish to stay in them, and especially to assure people that they can have a boarding place, and our students are allowed to board where they please. We wish to state that the Barbourville Baptist Institute has never been in a better condition. The fall session is unusually good and we have splendid instructors. The prospects for the winter term are encouraging. This school has always made progress because of the work it has done. Our students are our advertisements. Folks who know us know we do not allow idlers in our school. We assure people value received for the time and money spent with us. We wish to say to our friends "pay no attention" to such reports as the above, and furthermore, we would be delighted to know when such reports are circulated.

Cordially yours,
Barbourville Baptist Institute.
J. A. LOWRY, Pres.

CANDIDATE FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

MISS EMMA MORRIS

After considering the matter carefully and after receiving encouragement from citizens from all parts of the County, I have definitely decided to enter the race for superintendent of schools.

I attended the public schools and have taught in them for a number of years and I understand the trials, problems and needs of the boys and girls all over the County; and also of their parents who are striving hard to give their children an education. I am a graduate of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School and hold a life diploma from that institution entitling me to teach anywhere in the state. I have taken special work at a number of summer schools and last July I received a State certificate. I believe that all applicants for this office should secure the qualifications sufficient to meet the legal requirements, at least, before asking the people for their votes. I have served on the board of examiners and also as school supervisor, and often been at school work eleven months out of the year.

My family have always been true republicans and I am the first to ask for office. Since I believe I am fitted for the office of superintendent and can serve the people intelligently and well as anyone else in the County, I respectfully solicit the support of every man, woman, boy and girl.

I want to thank those who asked me to make the race four years ago and also those who have shown so much interest this time. A copy of this paper is to be sent to every family in the County and I expect to see and talk to each one personally before next August.

Conditions Along The Border.

Dear Editor and Friends of Knox County:

I take great pleasure in writing you of the conditions of the Mexican border.

We have been here about six weeks, in camp with about 40,000 National guards and regular soldiers, representing every part of the United States. We were in a parade on Sept. 18, every branch of the U. S. Army being represented. It was the largest since the Civil War. Kentucky and Ohio soldiers did their part and received a compliment from General Bell.

Cacti, rattle-snakes, scorpions, centipedes and horned toads are about the only thing that is raised in this part of Texas. People say it don't rain here, but it has been raining here for a week. It gets very cold at night and during the day it is very hot. Sand storms are very frequent. You can't tell when one is coming up. If you are so unlucky as to be caught out in one you are out of luck. You can't see ten feet in front of you.

El Paso is a beautiful city of 60,000 people; green the year around; situated on the banks of the Rio Grande River, the boundary line between Mexico and the United States. On the other is Juarez, Mexico, the famous race track center of the South. There are just a few American citizens that live in that town. An American soldier is not allowed over there in uniform. Several have gone over, but have never returned. It was supposed that Carranza soldiers killed them. The Mexican soldiers patrol their side of the river and the American soldiers their side. Occasionally an American soldier is killed from the Mexico side. Of course we return the fire, generally with three or four killed and several wounded. I was on guard one night several weeks ago and Villa soldiers made an attack on the Carranza soldiers in Juarez. I could hear the reports from their guns. Several were killed. The U. S. soldiers were not bothered.

I am glad that I have had a chance to get the military training that I have. In case of real Economics.

STATE OF KENTUCKY.
Eastern State Normal School.

Richmond, Kentucky,
November 1, 1916.

Mr. William Tye,
Barbourville, Ky.

My dear Tye:

I want to congratulate you on the excellent work of your Pig Club Boy. I am certainly proud of the fact that you were able to win the State Championship at the State Fair.

I also want to congratulate Mr. Robison, President and Mr. Cole, Cashier and the Board of Directors of the First National Bank of Barbourville for their advanced idea in regard to the agriculture of Knox county. I know that they have been much help to you as well as to the extension work and it is through the aid of such institutions as this bank that a brighter day is dawning for Kentucky. As you probably know, this bank was the first bank in Kentucky to accept the idea of giving away pigs to help the boys in their county and the example that they have laid down has been followed practically all over the State.

I am coming to Knox before long and I hope that through some generous assistance, such as we have gotten from the above bank, to be able to put on a strong campaign for better cattle.

Very truly yours,
I. H. COLLINS,
District Agent.

Down To Business.

Now that the election is over, we will get down to business, and try to forget the many things that have been done and said about us by the opposing party, and try to make amends for the things that we have said about them. This paper as will be observed by all its readers is strictly Republican, and has taken a stand in every election that has been held since it was established 17 years ago. It has changed its Editors and managers, but it has never changed its politics.

We are always glad to serve any and all people in the way of news items, and we do like more than any one thing to get to do advertising. We have been called upon to take a hand in matters that we have refused to try to settle between many factions, and we are always glad to pour oil upon any kind of troubled waters. We have always wanted to get along all right with our neighbors, and this we are going to do. We have refused to take a hand in any of the road controversy, and we say here and now that we will not do that. If you find some thing in the columns of this paper saying that the road should be built, or that way, someone is paying for that say. We run a paper for what the advertising and subscriptions pay. This is how a newspaper is run, and the only way it has to finance itself. So if you have anything that you would like for us to say, come on with it, we are here for the purpose of giving you the best newspaper within our power to give. We may take a crack at someone at any time. We don't know who it will be, but we will attend to the fellows who need it, and we go right after any man or any officer who needs it. We don't want to say anything that is not right and we are not going to do it either. Give us your support by paying us for the paper for twelve months, and telling the people through its columns what you have for sale. If you are wanting to run for an office, tell the people through the columns of the paper.

You do not know how many people read this paper; it is the family visitor. It goes to nearly every State in the Union, and to many foreign countries. Lend us a helping hand and watch the results.

All men put their britches on just alike, and all of us must submit to the inevitable; we want to try to do the best we can for the common good of all, and we would be glad to see Henry Ford and some of these other great philanthropist try their hand on getting the European Nations stop their fighting and just see what will happen then.

One Hundred Dollars From Barbourville.

To Barbourville has come a call for help from an isolated part of the State. Completely shut away from the world by mountains over which there are no roads, is the community served by Pine Mountain Settlement School, on "yon" side of Pine Mountain, in Harlan County. The school owns a well timbered farm of three hundred and sixty acres, on which are five large dwelling houses. Here lives a family of sixty-five children from four to fourteen years old, who stay at the school the year around, learning not only the three R's, but manual training, music, and home-making. Here the mountain children have the chance, long desired, of developing into men and women of whom the world may be proud. The school is non-sectarian and is incorporated under a charter of trustees. It is supported by voluntary contributions of friends all over the country.

The school is separated from the railroad by Pine Mountain, over which there are only three trails. A freight road was brought over the mountain by an old cable road and then hauled down the valley seven miles. It costs 70c per hundred pounds to get freight from the railroad to the school. The first year the school was founded, this item of expense amounted to $1,000. In order to be able to spend its money more wisely, the school is now raising a fund of $25,000, its share of the cost of a macadamized road connecting the school with the railroad. The new road will reduce the freight and hauling expenses 50 per cent. To Miss Celia Cathcart, a teacher in the school last year, has been given the task of raising this sum.

Money given the road fund will help not only the school, but the isolated community as well. It will create a market for produce; money will then become more plentiful; living conditions will improve, and a long-neglected people given a chance.

On Saturday afternoon, you will be asked to help this fund. Let Barbourville follow the example of Pineville and Middlesboro in giving $100,00!

Hon. Caleb Powers

The invincible Caleb Powers, has been returned to Congress for the fourth time with his usual majority of more than 15,000.

He is the fellow the Democrats would like to get rid of, but it looks as though he is here to stay.

For Superintendent.

In this issue of the Advocate, we announce the candidacy of Miss Emma Morris for the office of Superintendent of Schools of Knox County.

Miss Morris is a Republican, and all her family are and have always been Republicans. They have none of them ever held office of any kind, and she comes

Hon. Jackson Morris

Hon. Jackson Morris was the elector for the 1st district which gave the Republican Party a majority of 20 votes.

Mr. Morris is one of the most forceful speakers in the State, and is a campaigner of great value who has done much for the party.

Hon. S. H. Kash

Hon. Sam H. Kash, the elector for the 2nd district, led the Republican ticket in Kentucky by several thousand votes, and he is the only man, up to this time, who ever got more votes as elector in the State of Kentucky, than any Democratic elector.

Sam is a "scrapper" who never tires when working for the G. O. P. He made speeches in 53 Counties in the State.

She has had quite an experience in teaching and has all the necessary qualifications. She launches her campaign with a great deal of energy, and will fight to the end of the campaign. She says that she will try to see every man and woman in the County before the primary, August 4th, 1916.

Does yours bring joy to the breakfast table?

North — East — South — West — women are solving the coffee problem.

Armies have solved it. "An army travels on its stomach" and of the army breakfast, ask any soldier what he would miss most.

One of the greatest American judges has said that unhappiness in the home commences with the first cup of poor coffee.

There is a coffee which brings a million men to breakfast "in a hurry."

Today you can introduce its rich, full flavor in your home. Serve Arbuckles' for a week and notice how much more his breakfast means to him. Bring joy to your breakfast table.

Today there are whole towns where Arbuckles is practically the only coffee used. In one State alone, in a year, four pounds of Arbuckles' Coffee was used for every man, woman and child in the State—four times as many pounds of coffee as the population of the State!

WEST VIRGINIA VOTE QUESTIONED

John J. Cornwell Leads Judge Ira Robinson—Sen. Chilton Confident—Woman Suffrage Defeated.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 9.—Late returns indicated that the 8 West Va. electoral votes would be cast for Chas. E. Hughes, the 18th making a sudden change from President Wilson.

The maj. of from 5,000 to 8,000 held by Hughes was reduced to less than 2,000 during the day and for a time it appeared as if the President would lose the lead.

Although the labor policies of the President and his party appealed to the laboring vote in the state, as is shown by the remarkable gains made by the President in the industrial counties, the Socialists deserted their party and voted the Democratic ticket.

JOHN J. CORNWELL

The Democratic gains were concentrated by state issues.

Cornwell has been able to keep a small lead in the contest for the Panhandle electoral vote. John J. Cornwell, Democrat, passed Judge Ira E. Robinson, 2000 increased his lead as the precincts reported. State Chairman C. J. Shaver declared that Cornwell was elected by more than 5,000, and he also stated that the state had gone for Wilson and re-elected Senator Chilton. The latter secured the support of the labor vote and led his ticket in his home county of Kanawha. Republican leaders at Charleston holding out that the Republican state ticket headed by Robinson was saved.

Because of the overturn of great Republican majorities in counties like Kanawha, Fayette, Mason, Mercer, Cabell and Clay the Democrats will control the 18th House of Delegates, and it is believed will have at least a tie in the Senate if not a majority of one.

For the first time in a quarter of a century Kanawha county gave a Democratic presidential candidate a majority. Besides giving Wilson a majority Kanawha county elected every Democratic candidate in county, including six members of the House of Delegates, one of whom was former Secretary of State Charles Wesley Swisher. The Kanawha vote also assured the election of A. G. Montgomery, of Florida, to the State Senate from the Eighth District.

West Virginia Congressmen chosen:

First District—M. M. Neeley, Dem.
Second District—G. M. Bowers, R.
Third District—Stuart F. Reed, R.
Fourth District—J. A. Noll, Dem.
Fifth District—G. R. C. Willes, D.
Sixth District—Adam Littlepage, D.

REPUBLICANS GAIN

In Texas Vote, But State is Safe For President.

Austin, Texas, November 9.—The Republicans made big inroads into the ordinary big democratic majorities in Texas. It is indicated that the total vote cast was approximately 325,000, of which 125,000 was for Hughes, 30,000 for Socialist electors and 170,000 for Wilson. The Republicans gained more than 100,000 over the vote cast for Taft in 1912.

TENNESSEE IN WILSON COLUMN

Governor Rye Re-elected—McKellar New United States Senator.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 9.—Tennessee voters showed conclusively that they approve the present administration, both national and state, by giving ing the big and usual Democratic majority.

TOM C. RYE

Governor Tom Rye, Democrat, was re-elected Governor, and K. D. McKellar, Democrat, was elected to the United States Senate over former Governor Hooper, Republican.

Despite strenuous efforts on the part of Republican leaders, little inroads were made on the "Volunteer" state. For the first time in many years that a Presidential candidate invaded the state, Charles Evans Hughes brought his campaign into this city but with little effect.

KENNETH D. MCKELLAR

Governors were chosen as follows:

Arkansas—C. H. Brough, Dem.
Colorado—J. C. Gunter, Dem.

COUNTS WERE CLOSELY WATCHED

New York, November 9.—With the country's choice of a President in the almost unprecedented status of doubt on the day after election, both Democratic and Republican headquarters were scenes of nervous activity and tension. Although both sides claimed majorities in the electoral college, there seemed, nevertheless, to be a feeling at both places there was a chance that the determination of the final result with the States doubtful might be prolonged.

There were suggestions also that there might be in some States, contests over the returns, which might be drawn out, with the result hanging on a recount. George W. Perkins, at Republican headquarters, commented upon the close vote in some States, declared that a recount might be necessary.

OHIO STANDS BY WOODROW WILSON

Carries the State By 50,000—Democratic State Ticket Including Cox For Governor and Pomerene For Senator Elected.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 9.—Ohio, with its twenty-four electoral votes, again went into the Democratic column, giving Woodrow Wilson a margin of 50,000.

Former Governor Cox, Democrat, defeated the present incumbent, Governor Frank B. Willis, by a slight plurality, and Senator Allee Pomerene, Democrat, will be returned, he having defeated Herlick, Republican.

Returns which returned James M. Cox to the Governor's chair, gave him a majority in both House and Senate and returned Supreme Court Justices James G. Johnson and Maurice H. Donahue.

Not until late Wednesday did Governor Frank B. Willis admit his defeat by issuing a statement and making public a copy of a telegram which he forwarded to his predecessor and successor. The message was simple. It merely said:

"I congratulate you on your election as Governor of Ohio." At the same time the Governor explained that the Republicans lost because of a shortage of votes.

NEW OHIO OFFICERS.

Columbus, Ohio, November 9.—The Democratic State ticket, elected, is as follows:

GOVERNOR—James M. Cox, of Montgomery.
UNITED STATES SENATOR—Allee Pomerene, of Stark.
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—Earl D. Bloom, of Wood.
SECRETARY OF STATE—William D. Fulton, of Licking.
STATE TREASURER—Chester E. Bryson, of Madison.
STATE AUDITOR—A. V. Donahay, of Tuscarawas.

REPUBLICANS WIN INDIANA

Watson and New Defeat Taggart and Kern, Giving the Senate Two New Republican Members.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9.—Indiana rolled up a majority of 20,000 for Charles Evans Hughes and the Republican party.

James P. Goodrich, of Winchester, Republican, was elected Governor by a plurality, slightly larger than that of Mr. Hughes.

Two Republican United States Senators, a long and short term, the latter caused by the recent death of Senator Shively, were elected, and Indiana, has done more than the average state's share in helping to increase the Republican complexion of the Senate.

Harry S. New, of Indianapolis, was elected to succeed Senator John W. Kern and James E. Watson, Rushville, defeated Senator Thomas Taggart.

Following are successful Senatorial nominees:

"Doubtful."

COMPLETION OF COUNT IS NECESSARY

Late Reports From Doubtful States Bring Surprises

PARALLEL CONTEST OF 1876

Political History Enriched By Amazing Swing Back and Forth of Returns in the Presidential Election.

WILSON LEADS.
The result of the Presidential race hangs by a thread with Woodrow Wilson leading.
Necessary for choice.....263
Wilson has.....260
Hughes has.....243
Wilson needs.....8
Hughes needs.....23
The doubtful states are California, Minnesota and New Mexico. California shows President Wilson leading.
Minnesota gives Hughes a slight lead.
Wilson holds the lead in New Mexico.
New Hampshire switched to the Wilson column by a plurality of 117 votes.

New York, Nov. 9.—American political history was enriched by the amazing swing back and forth of the returns for Hughes, again for Wilson and for Wilson and again Hughes. First returns available, showed Wilson leading. Then came a Hughes sweep, with a tremendous lead in New York and reports of a big plurality for the G. O. P. in Kansas. Massachusetts, preliminary reports added to the Republican candidate's growing list.

But again the swing changed. A Wilson drift set in. Ohio went unmistakably Democratic.
The shift in sentiment was exemplified by the shifting headlines in the New York papers. The New York Times (Dem.), after conceding the election of Hughes, issued an extra saying, "It looks as if Wilson is elected."

The New York Tribune, Republican, after announcing the election of Hughes in a "clean sweep" of the country, described the situation in early editions as follows: "Hughes leading in close race."

Upon doubtful States from which the returns were slow coming, depended whether Mr. Wilson was re-elected or whether the next President of the United States was Charles E. Hughes.

Republican Chairman Wilcox claimed every state generally classed as doubtful and counted 323 votes for Mr. Hughes.

Democratic Chairman McCormick, in a statement, declared President Wilson surely would have 304 votes in the electoral college. The actual complete returns gave President Wilson 260 votes and Mr. Hughes 238.

On the votes of California, Delaware, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Oregon, Washington, West Virginia and Wyoming, the decisive result of the Presidential election turned—total 87 votes.

There seemed to be no doubt that President Wilson had safely carried Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah and Virginia.

In the Hughes column were counted: Connecticut, Illinois, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont and Wisconsin.

The latest returns did not show that the Republicans have overcome the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives nor in the Senate. With about 100 congressional districts to be heard from, the Republicans made a net gain of eight members in the House, but late returns from New York indicated that two of these might be reversed. With a net gain of eight it would leave the House with a Democratic majority of seven.

In the Senate the Democrats showed losses from New York, New Jersey and Maryland. The indications were they would lose the two senators from Indiana, one from West Virginia, and possibly one each from Ohio, Montana and Arizona.

The Democrats gained three senators from Rhode Island, Delaware and Utah. Conceding all the probable Republican gains it would give a net Republican gain of seven in the Senate and leave the Democratic majority at two.

Aside from the uncertainty of the result, the most remarkable thing about the election was the sudden wiping out of the Hughes majorities piled up in the East by the returns coming in from the West. When the Republican landslide in New York was made known and was quickly followed by the heavy Republican election in New England, there was a veritable stampede to announce the election of Mr. Hughes and the defeat of President Wilson.

Hundreds of thousands saw the signal lights flash the defeat of the President. New York newspapers which had been predicting a landslide support of him, conceded the President's defeat even before some of the Western states had been heard from. Thousands of persons in the East went to bed believing Mr. Hughes elected and woke up to find the apparently changed while they slept. Hundreds who made their plans for what they expected to happen, found them set all awry.

The first figures of Wilson's victory through the West did not shake the confidence of those who had predicted the election of Mr. Hughes, and not until the steady stream of Wilson majorities began came from California, Minnesota and New Mexico, did any of them suspect that their suit was in danger.

Not since a next day's re-election contest of 1892, was the country so long pelted to wait so long to know the result. More than 12 hours after the polls had closed Mr. Wilson and Hughes were running a race to doubtful states.

REPUBLICANS ANNEX ILLINOIS

Thousands of Women Vote For First Time—Indicated They Followed Hughes—Lowden Elected Governor Over Dunne.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 9.—Illinois was carried by Hughes by a plurality of 175,000. Likewise Frank O. Lowden, for Governor, defeated Governor Edward F. Dunne, the Democratic incumbent, by about the same figure.

The vote for Hughes by the workmen, especially in Chicago and other big industrial centers, was the surprise to the Democratic leaders. They had confidently expected that the labor vote would "stick" to their candidate.

Democratic managers had feared the woman vote of the state and a keen disappointment was felt over the result. Six hundred thousand women voted for the first time. Because of the pacifist issue, it was predicted that they would fairly storm the polls, but their votes for the President, however, did not materialize.

In the agricultural districts and throughout the central and southern part of Illinois, Wilson did not show to advantage.

A defection in the normal Republican vote was caused by the labor vote in some of the railway centers of Illinois, but this was made up by the swing of the business men to the G. O. P. ticket.

Returns from North Dakota indicate that Hughes had carried the state, and that McCormick had been re-elected United States Senator over John Burke, Federal Treasurer.

Large West Republican by more than 50,000 for Hughes and more than 100,000 for Wilson. Harding, Rep., for Governor, defeated the Republican incumbent, a majority of 100,000. A bitter fight was made over the election, but Hughes was quickly elected. Hughes' ticket in the state was carried by a landslide. Hughes' ticket in the state was carried by a landslide. Hughes' ticket in the state was carried by a landslide.

NEW ILLS COME WITH PROSPERITY

Nervous Indigestion Alarmingly Prevalent Everywhere.

DUE TO BREAK-NECK LIVING

Tanlac Health Expert Describes Symptoms of Rapidly Spreading Malady and Explains New Treatment Which is Having Wonderful Success Wherever Introduced.

Nervous indigestion, due to the modern break-neck speed of living, has become alarmingly prevalent everywhere.

This statement by the Tanlac health expert has created much comment. He continued:

"I have never seen a time when there seemed to be so many cases of nervous indigestion among men and women in all walks of life.

Here Are Symptoms.

"The symptoms are extreme irritability, nervousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, and an almost unquarable restlessness. Everything the victim eats disagrees with him. Tosses the pains in the abdomen and palpitation of the heart. Such cases are usually accompanied by constipation.

"I attribute the prevalence of this trouble to the fast pace at which both men and women are forcing themselves to live. Everybody is engaged in a wild scramble for wealth during this high tide of prosperity.

"The will power can drive the human machine just so far, but there is a limit. The health breaks down all at once and the victim is miserable and unhappy—just half sick. Life loses all its zest.

How Tanlac Helps.

"I have had hundreds of people call on me describing just such symptoms. They try Tanlac, and in a week or so most of them tell me that it is helping them to get on their feet again." Tanlac was specially designed to relieve conditions resulting from nervous indigestion and kindred complaints. Everywhere it has been introduced it has had wonderful success."

Tanlac, the master medicine and reconstructive tonic, is sold exclusively in Barbourville by Herndon Drug Co.

Other exclusive agents in nearby towns are as follows:

Elys, New Hughes-Jellico Co.; Bradel, Trosper Coal Co.; Artemus, L. T. Helton & Co.; Wilton, Jellico Coal Co.; Corbin, Archer's Pharmacy; Gray, C. B. Donaldson and S. E. Owens & Co.; Pineville, Chas. For County Court Clerk.

I have been asked many times if I would be a candidate for the office of Clerk of the County Court for Knox County. Up to this time I have had business of more importance to look after than my own, and now having done my full duty to my party, and having fully considered the matter, I come to the voters of Knox County asking their support for the Republican nomination for the office of County Court Clerk.

In announcing myself, I wish to say that I have no ill word for any of my opponents. I want to make a clean race, and will not get down to any kind of little dirty politics. I want to make my race on merit of my own, and not the demerit of my opponents. I will see every man in the County between this and the Primary, August 4, 1917.

Thanking all my friends for their past favors, and soliciting their continued support in this race, I am

Very truly yours,
W. H. McDONALD.

WILSON WINS

WILSON AND MARSHALL

As we go to press we get from Republican headquarters that the face of the returns show the election of Mr. Wilson by three electoral votes. But, there will be recounts in some of the doubtful States, which might ultimately change the returns, but this we doubt.

We are sure that the above is correct as we got it from Hon. Alvis Bennett, Secretary of the State Central Committee of the Republican party in Kentucky.

PRESIDENT WINS IN KENTUCKY

State Gives a Democratic Majority of 15,000—Nine Out of Eleven Democratic Congressmen Elected.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—President Wilson carried nine out of eleven congressional districts in the state by a majority of 15,000.

Charles Evans Hughes carried the normal Republican section known as the mountain parts and comprising the tenth and eleventh districts.

Even though the G. O. P. sent many national speakers into the state, including two visits from Mr. Hughes, a tour by Colonel Roosevelt in the eastern end of the state, while Mr. Fairbanks, the vice-president, used a special train and made speeches in scores of towns throughout the peninsular or dark tobacco parts, the Republicans failed to make any noticeable gains.

They had figured that because of the close race between Stanley, who was elected Governor last year over Edwin P. Morrow, the Republican aspirant, by a few hundred votes, that their chances for carrying the state were splendid. Their calculations did not materialize and Kentucky again becomes a part of the "South" always solid for Democracy.

Judge Flem D. Sampson, Republican, of Barbourville, was victorious over Judge J. M. Robinson, Democrat, of Pikeville, in the race for the seat on the Court of Appeals bench from the Seventh District.

Judge Charles H. Bush, Democrat, was re-elected to the Circuit Court bench over Sam P. Truitt, Republican, in the Third Judicial District.

Democrats of the Fifth Kentucky District, which includes Louisville, were victorious at the polls, carrying the district for Woodrow Wilson by a majority of 700 and returning Swager Sherley to Congress by a majority of 1,275.

Kentucky Congressmen elected:

First District—A. W. Barkley, D.
Second District—D. H. Kinchloe, D.
Third District—R. Y. Thomas, D.
Fourth District—Ben Johnson, D.
Fifth District—Swager Sherley, D.
Sixth District—A. B. Rouse, Dem.
Seventh District—J. Campbell Cantrell, Dem.
Eighth District—Harvey Heim, D.
Ninth District—W. J. Florida, Dem.
Tenth District—John W. Langley, Rep.
Eleventh District—Caleb Powers, R.

Kentucky Oil and Gas Co. Let Contract for Five More Wells

There has been lots of talk in and about the City for some days, but up until the last few days it seemed to us that rather "Wild Cat" speculation. But the matter has come to brass tacks, and there is indication that there will be many operations in the near future.

If the vote tomorrow were to be cast for most popular man, instead of for the election of officials, there would be an overwhelming plurality in favor of CERTAIN-TEED roofing.

This is indicated by the fact that "The General" makes 2/3 of all the asphalt roofing made in America. The balance is "scattered" among 29 other manufacturers.

Each year CERTAIN-TEED rolls up a strikingly increasing number of testimonials, because this type of roof is coming to be recognized as the most efficient covering for all kinds of buildings, whether flat or pitched roofs.

Certain-teed Roofing is clean and sanitary, and costs less to buy, less to lay, less to maintain and less per year of life than any other roof. It lasts for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). It is much longer.

The secret of the long life of the quality of the roofing felt, and the asphalt saturation. It does not wear out—its life depends upon the length of time it is saturated. CERTAIN-TEED is made of the best quality roofing felt, and is thoroughly saturated with the General's oil-solvent asphalt, which keeps the inner saturation soft and prevents the wearing-out process so destructive to the ordinary roofing.

CERTAIN-TEED is also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world, at reasonable prices. It is before you decide on any type of roof.

Good Manners.

[SALLIE LITTLE HATTON.]

"What is beauty, not the show of shapely limbs and features? No!

"Tis the stainless soul within, That outshines the fairest skin."

The underlying principle of all good manners is unselfishness. The observance of the proprieties required by good breeding constitute good manners. The importance of acquiring gentle manners cannot be overestimated. There is nothing so admirable. Your success or failure in life depends upon your manners or your want of them. Good manners are uplifting and necessary. A good cause could be ruined by bad manners and pleasant persistence could overcome many obstacles to your success. They are little messengers of what lies within you. They are necessary to express the higher qualities of nature. They contribute to our happiness and comfort of life and to widening our scope of life.

Good manners must be founded upon kindness. You may become familiar with all the rules of form, fashion and etiquette and you may acquire the art of dressing in the most up-to-date style; you may remember to sip your tea from the side of the spoon and even teach yourself, and your poodle, how to retire backwards, courtesying, from the drawing room and out of the presence of his or her grace, majesty or excellency, as the case may be, but if you do not have the principle of kindness and charity with you, all your paraphernalia and acquirements will not hide the fact that under your mantle you have very long ears and a tremendous voice, that you are—in short—a donkey and an undesirable neighbor. Only the good are beautiful. Only the kind have the power of expressing true politeness.

Love yourself by all means, seek for the highest and best. Cultivate those virtues within you. Cast overboard the vain, useless, idle, deceitful, dishonest qualities of your nature and dress with care, not to be conspicuous. Be interested in the things that will help the world. Employ your time in improving the mind, speak the plain truth and deal honestly. By all means be kind to yourself and give yourself a chance to express that great, good, noble, loving spirit of life that is within you and you will be making good for this life and for eternity.

Your manners will then be up to the mark, your style of dress will have a real charm. You will love the good, and the true will love you, and you will love God and your fellowman, and will seek to follow He, who came "to seek and to save that which was lost."

Qualities versus Quantity.

Many housewives make a vital mistake in choosing some of their foodstuffs on the basis of quantity.

It has been proven time and again that the cheapest is always the most expensive, while the highest price is not always the best.

There's a happy medium in every thing. When you select foods, be careful. Don't choose any particular brand of, say Baking Powder for example, just because you get a big can for a small price.

The risk you take in ruining your entire baking and losing the cost of the materials involved is not anywhere equal to the small amount saved on the price of the Baking Powder.

Then again, because the price is high, don't think the quality is the best. Some women do and they are losing money.

Look for the happy medium. You'll find it. Choose a brand that costs a moderate price and you'll find it more economical to buy and more economical to use.

The best Baking Powder in the world can be made so as to sell for 25c per 1 lb.

Its light upon the face,
So its creamy petals folds
Its blush in close embrace.
The White Rose.

Sweet Angelic voices
In its fragrance repose,
Aye, a glad heart rejoices
In the spirit of the rose.
The White Rose.
